Business Name: _____

How did you hear about us?

Are you aware that we were founded as a consulting company and have a background in auditing products, services and companies, and now supply products that we have assessed to be the most environmental option? Yes / No

Are you aware that we do not, as a matter of principle, supply non environmental alternatives, thereby guaranteeing that your purchasing dollars are not inadvertently supporting something that you directly are trying to avoid? Yes / No

How important are environmental issues to your business? Very / Somewhat / Just developing (further explanations are welcomed but not mandatory)

Is your interest in being environmentally responsible a matter of principle? Yes / No
(further explanations are welcomed but not mandatory)

Do you exercise environmental policies in your workplace? Yes / No
(further explanations are welcomed but not mandatory)

Do you strive for ongoing improvements? Yes / No
(further explanations are welcomed but not mandatory)

How would you rate yourself on your level of environmental stewardship?
(further explanations are welcomed but not mandatory)

In case you are interested, we have an informal environmental ranking (our environmental stewardship scale) that we use to identify strong leaders.

Through this, we are beginning a program to offer discounts that reward environmental stewardship. This is something that can only be identified over time, after getting to know one another and after witnessing performance. If your company or institution is recognized, we will contact you to make you aware of this designation.

*We sincerely appreciate you finding us and look forward to growing a long and healthy relationship.
Sincerely,*

Jennifer Wright
